1. Responsibility for the processing of your personal data

Responsible for the processing of your data is the Regional Office Jakarta of the DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service), Ged. Summitmas II, Lt. 14, Jl. Jend. Sudirman Kav. 61-62, Jakarta 12190, Indonesia, www.daad.id (contact via website)

2. Subject matter of data protection

Subject matter of data protection are personal data, meaning any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject'). Upon registration for the event, you will be asked to provide the following personal data: your name, your mail address, home country, study interests (and for some events your academic status).

3. Purpose of the processing and legal basis

3.1 We need your name in order to identify you as participant of the event and to prevent misuse of the platform. Your email address is necessary to send you the link to join the event after registration. Without providing these personal data, participation in the event is unfortunately not possible. Legal basis for the processing of these personal data is Art. 6 (1) b) GDPR (performance of contractual obligations).
We need the further data on home country and study interests (and in some cases academic status) in order to tailor the information given in the event to your needs and minimize the risk of giving you information that is not relevant for you.
Your personal data will be deleted after the event has ended.

3.2 Furthermore, you may consent that the DAAD may contact you to provide further information about DAAD-scholarships, DAAD-offers and DAAD-events and that the DAAD may invite you to take part in a follow-up survey concerning the event you attended. By registering with consent you also consent that your contact data (name, surname, email address) and the data on your home country and your study interests (and in some cases academic status) you provided with your registration will be forwarded by the DAAD to the presenting German participating academic institution to enable them to proactively contact you via email after the event in order to (a) answer any questions you posted during the event and (b) provide you with further information about their study programs according to your interests. You can of course also participate in this event without consenting.

3.3 If you declare your consent, the legal basis for the processing of your personal data is Art. 6 (1) a) GDPR (consent). You may withdraw your consent at any time with future effect also against the respective German participating institution by sending an e-mail to media.jakarta@daad.de or by clicking on the opt-out-link you find in the e-mail which will be sent to you after having completed your registration. The lawfulness of the processing of your personal data up to this point of time will remain unaffected. After your withdrawal of consent your personal data will be deleted.

4. Recipients of your personal data

Within the DAAD, those departments are given access to your personal data that require them in order to manage the event, or, in case you have declared your consent, which require them to provide you with information which you like to receive.

Outside the DAAD, our external service provider who operates the event platform may have access to your personal data when providing support for the event platform.

5. Information about your rights as data subjects

As data subject you have the following rights:

Right of access: You have the right to obtain information which personal data concerning your person are being processed by the DAAD.
